The Financial Advisor Career Opportunity

Our client is looking for dedicated people with an entrepreneurial spirit and an agile and proactive mindset who want to help Canadians achieve their financial goals. Perhaps you are considering a career change, or if you are currently in the industry, you are seeking an opportunity to improve outcomes for yourself and your clients. Becoming a financial advisor requires a high degree of dedication, commitment, and effort. For the right individual, combined with our support, this will be a highly rewarding and professional career. We are committed to excellence. Today, over 1,400 of our Consultants hold the CFP or F. Pl. designation, with a goal of having 100% of Consultants certified.

You build your practice on your terms – working directly with clients to develop relationships, provide comprehensive financial plans, and help them achieve financial confidence with their life-long financial goals.

It’s a rewarding career and we invite you to explore the opportunity we offer:

- Provide industry-leading training, support, and ongoing development throughout your career
- Support you through a team of advanced financial planning experts and a network of wealth planning, mortgage, and insurance planning specialists
- Offer exceptional income potential, where your earnings are reflective of your efforts.
- Encourage independence and work-life synergy as you plan your schedule

Qualifications:

- IFIC or CSC and LLQP
- 5+ years of financial industry experience

Company Information:

Our goal is to be Canada’s financial partner of choice.We have built meaningful, long-term relationships with our clients and their families. Our synchronized approach to financial planning looks at all aspects of a client’s financial life. We take the time to explore clients' life and financial goals and concerns for themselves and their families and then follow up with a comprehensive analysis of their overall financial well-being. We assess and adjust client plans as their circumstances change. This approach enables them to take advantage of life's possibilities and helps them realize their full financial potential. Today we deliver financial planning and wealth advice to more than one million Canadians coast to coast through our network of financial advisors.
